Commodore's Report

Spring has sprung, many of our snowbirds have returned and we can all look forward, hopefully, to a great 2017 boating season.

We had one event in March, bowling at Rose Bowl, organized by P/C Doug Potier. The 11 people who attended had a great time but I would like to say 'WHERE ARE THE REST OF YOU'.

March was not such a busy month for other club events, so Rick and I went to Florida for 10 days, leaving right after our bowling event. It was a much needed rest, and now it's onward and upward.

We are working on the Shakedown Cruise the weekend of May 20th, look for a flyer in your email and facebook page in the very near future.

Happy waxing, painting, and cleaning in preparation for your launch.

Fleet Captain's Report

Happy Spring to all

It seems like it was just the other day that we were pulling our boats out of the water and winterizing them. As we get older, winterizing ourselves becomes more of a challenge.

I don't have too much to report other than a recent AYC meeting I attended with Commodore Izzie. I do appreciate the larger U.S. clubs that take the initiative to put on the events that they have planned for the up coming season. We don't have the membership to do many of the events they do, so I think this would be an opportune time to think of ideas to increase our membership.

Plans are ongoing for our Blessing of the Fleet event that is coming quickly on May 28th. Invitation letters have gone out to all the dignitaries and look forward to responses of participation. You should, if not already, receive information regarding this very important event. Again, if there are any ideas for increasing membership, please share as we need this to keep this great club going strong.

Rick Ingalls

Communications Report

In light of a declining membership and refusal by our general body to step into an active role within the club, I will be concentrating efforts this year at enlisting new members and taking an approach to re-invent the wheel. Holiday Harbour, being our home port, with a boater population of over 100 and a Sun Parlour presence of 5, represents a prime target for our efforts. The new objective will be a return to a simpler club where short excursions, many local events and a non-costly approach is taken. For our regular members, the club will carry on in its diminished capacity with every attempt made to build from within and hope people see the writing on the wall. I absolutely believe in a no negativity approach and I feel that our membership drive will be a very positive attempt to solve the problem facing our club. I have spoken to a few who are willing to help out with this and really hope that my efforts are contagious. If I have reached anyone, please contact me with your support and a pledge to lend a hand.

As a member of this club, you have an affiliation with 32 clubs in the US, not only for docking but also to be able to attend the various events that they host. For this reason, we must attend a monthly meeting of all these clubs in the AYC and gather flyers outlining all the activities for the upcoming month, and beyond. I have assembled and distributed a collage of flyers so our members are better informed of what they are entitled to and I urge you to take advantage of this honour. Our club is respected and you will be graciously accepted anywhere you go. Just do it, it is part of the perks.
