Commodore's Report

It's been a very busy month with receptions and attending ILYA Power Boat Regatta last month. Congratulations to SPBC Chris Amlin and Lady Sharon on a great year. While I was there I had the privilege of working with West River Yacht Cruising Club's Bob Lang who ran the Junior Power Boat Regatta. I won two burgees, one for the 8 horse and the other for the 15 horse dinghy run. I had lots of fun and a great week .

For those who helped out at this year's Sun Parlour Boat Club Regatta, thank you so much for all the hard work you have done. I enjoyed every minute this weekend. The Reception was perfect and the band was excellent. Special thanks go out to Vice Commodore Izzie and gentlemen Rick and all the committees and helpers.

Please mark your calendar for the next big event, our Pig Roast which is September 24th. Get your tickets early there will only be 80 dinners. All members of Sun Parlour Boat Club and family members and friends and Holiday Harbor is invited to this event. All profits go towards this year's Commodore's Ball in November, your support is appreciated. Looking forward to seeing everyone. Please RSVP me at keithpostma2016@gmail.com.

Vice Commodore's Report

Many, many thanks go out to my Committee Chairs, Gerry Ediger, Dan Fitzpatrick, Neil Bastien, Bill & Connie Woods, Dan Croteau and David Staunton and all the people who stepped up to help make the Regatta what it was. Despite the muggy heat and torrential downpour we got through it. We put on our dance shoes (flip flops) Friday night with DJ's Reg & Laurie Major and Saturday night with Rick and The Power and the Glory.

My next event will be on Thursday, Sept. 29th, another Peameal Bacon on a Bun. Watch for the flyer. GLSBC has Zukin's Ribs on Sat. September 17th, always great food and a great time.

Summer is winding down, but hopefully the weather stays warm and tornado free for a while yet.

CHEERS.

Fleet Captain's Report

O-O-H-H-H, what a party:

I honestly believe everyone who attended this year's regatta had a blast of a good time. I would like to thank the rest of the bridge for a great job well done and for supporting me. The quality of this event also shows the enormous amount of effort that was delivered by many volunteers from grass preparations to reception, silent auction, the DJ music and band, security, docking, bar and gate services, fast food and many more. Also many thanks to a long list of volunteers I cannot print in this report for making setting up and tear-down a successful experience. It is pure joy to observe how everyone works so harmoniously completing so many tasks in such a short time. Let's also give recognition to our young teens Cole, Donovan and Brett who joined our volunteer list helping tremendously in every way they could. Also thanks to Holiday Harbour for providing us with a tent, tables, and Paul for making us lunch; very much appreciated. Hats off to ALL the volunteers, I cannot thank you enough, you've all done a great job and we partied the success.

POKER RUNS

Its sad to even imagine but this month marks the end to our seasonal poker run event. Please attend this final event at the Detroit Beach Boat Club September 9th to 11th for opening of the cards to see what's in your hand so good luck! or just go for the party, I'm sure you'll have a good time.

Immediate Past Commodore's Report

Past Commodore Report

Great job Vice Commodore Izzie and SPBC team for a well-run event. Even with the rain, the event ran quite smoothly. As well, we appreciate all those that came out, our SPBC members, Holiday Harbour members and others from the AYC clubs. Without your attendance, this event couldn't happen. As well, thanks go out to Holiday Harbour which provided great support for this event.

We have a number of activities in September planned. Our General Membership meeting is Friday, September 16th and would really like to see you out. As well, keep in mind the TGIF event (that one's mine) is on Friday, October 7th at 5:30pm. Mark this one on your calendars.

Our SPBC Ball is coming up in November (Saturday, November 19th). If you would like to help out, please let me know; a few more hands is always welcome (and one of the few remaining events to get some work hours in).

Take care and have a good month; September is one of my favorite boating months.

I-LYA Update

By all accounts, the I-LYA Regatta events had excellent turn-outs and were jammed pack with fun. Good job Commodore Chris and your board on a set of events well executed.

Communications Report

Ok, the key word for this month is definitely participation. This year has been the ultimate challenge as many of our members have been invisible. The Regatta with the need for help to carry it off brought about a transition. These invisible members turned on their lights and were seen by all. Without all the help we received, it would not have taken place. To everyone involved, thank you from the bottom of our hearts and please, please keep those lights shining.

The band was great! The band was great! Yah Yah The band was great because of YOU! Without a good audience, the band struggles. The only thing bringing us out of retirement was the fact that we would get to play another Regatta. This was more fun and incentive for the band than anything. We enjoyed the night more than you guys. Thank you for giving us OUR reason to shine.

Please keep in mind that there are a couple of events approaching in September, Commodore Keith's Pig Roast on the 24th and V/C Izzie's Peameal Bacon night on Thursday, the 29th. Just a couple more reasons to keep the good thing going!

Come one! Come all! We have our General Membership Meeting on Sept. 16. There are issues at this meeting that affect you all. Please plan to attend to have a voice in the direction your club is heading.

Membership Report

Ahoy Fellow Boaters,

With the end of August, summer is slowly starting to wind down. Sheila and I were lucky enough to schedule 3 weeks away on our boat, with fellow members Matt and Maria, and their 2 boys Cole and Brett. We travelled to several of our affiliated clubs that Matt had arranged to host us. We left our home port on July 31st to travel to Monroe Boat Club, then onto Maumee State Park for a few days, then to Maumee River Yacht Club where we represented Sun Parlour Boat Club at their Regatta. Maumee River Yacht Club went above and beyond allowing us to enjoy their pool and an extended stay. I forgot to mention sitting on the patio at Toledo Sail enjoying their "Brandy Alexanders" wow. Next it was back to Monroe Boat Club where we enjoyed the hospitality of Rick and Wendy Campbell, then onto Swan Boat Club for their Rib Fest and a visit to ClamDiggers thanks to Sam Rose. After Swan it was onto our last port of call, Great Lakes Steel Boat Club to enjoy the view and relaxation along the Detroit River. A very special thank you to Bill and Connie Woods for making our stay so enjoyable. Finally back to our home port for a few days of R&R before assisting in preparing our club for our Sun Parlour Regatta on the 26th and 27th of August.

After 3 days of preparation by our Executive Board headed by our Vice Commodore Izzie Dulmage, Fleet Captain Dan Croteau and several tireless volunteers, the event designed to honor our Commodore Keith Postma for his hard work and dedication in 2016 commenced. On Friday evening our own Reg and Laurie Major provided the music, Saturday afternoon started off with some rain that made way for the sunshine. The BBQ's were lit and dinner went off without a hitch. Entertainment was provided by Power and The Glory and did they do a remarkable job keeping us up on the dance floor. Breakfast on Saturday was prepared by your 2016 Executive with the assistance of Marsha Quinn and Neil and Pat Bastien. Sunday's Breakfast was prepared by our PC's along with help from several others. Then onto teardown; our crew of volunteers organized by Fleet Captain Dan Croteau pulled this off without a hitch.

All that happened in the month of August, talk about jam packed.

I would like to personally thank all of the VOLUNTEERS who worked endlessly and tirelessly to make this event a success, especially my fellow bar tenders, and finally a special thank you to Lady Sheila who continues to support me in all of my efforts.

PS: Don't forget about our upcoming events, come out and support "YOUR CLUB".

See you around the club,
